

Rami Kadi Unveils a Dazzling Palette at the Prestigious MENA Region's Red Carpets

From the radiant shores of the Red Sea to the captivating atmosphere of the Gouna Film Festival, Maison Rami Kadi continues to make a colorful statement on the prestigious red carpets of the MENA region. At the Red Sea Film Festival 2023 in Jeddah, Rami Kadi showcased selected gowns from the previous 'Film Noir' and 'Mantra' collections, along with a custom couture creation. These exquisite pieces, worn by celebrities such as Dorra Zarrouk, Freida Pinto, and Alia Bhatt, seamlessly merged fashion with cinema, further solidifying Rami Kadi's global influence in glamour.

Transitioning to the Gouna Film Festival 2023, which launched its special edition this year under the captivating title of "Cinema For Humanity," Maison Rami Kadi continued to leave its mark on the red carpet scene. Egyptian actress Jamila

Awad, among the luminaries attending, graced the festival in a stunning Rami Kadi couture gown, adding an extra layer of elegance to the event. This choice of attire highlighted not only Jamila Awad's impeccable taste but also the seamless blend of high fashion and the art of storytelling that Maison Rami Kadi represents.

Egyptian actress Jamila Awad in a Rami Kadi couture black and white fully crystalized gown from the “Film Noir” collection.

From the Gouna to Jeddah, Maison Rami Kadi's presence on these red carpets symbolizes the brand's commitment to elevating the intersection of fashion and cinema in the MENA region. The exquisite gowns showcased at both festivals not only adorned the celebrities but also contributed to the overall spectacle, creating lasting impressions at the heart of these cinematic celebrations.

British actress Alia Bhatt in a Rami Kadi couture sand shell embroidered set from the “Film Noir” collection.

Tunisian actress Dorra Zarrouk in a custom-made Rami Kadi couture off-shoulder black gown embroidered with crystals and beads forming a linear pattern.

Red Sea jury member and Indian actress Freida Pinto dazzled in two distinct looks – one from the 'Film Noir' collection and another from the 'Mantra' collection – during the 'Women in Cinema' gala at the Red Sea Film Festival, showcasing the versatility of Maison Rami Kadi's designs.

Freida Pinto in a black Rami Kadi silver sequined Film Noir couture gown with thread fringes and a puffy satin neckline.

Freida Pinto in a hand-embroidered sunset orange gown adorned with ruffles of tulle , organza leaves, and silenes from the “Le Reveil” collection.